MALAYA BAT FIRST IN INTERPORT.

PARTIALLY RETRIEVE A BAD START.

DR. HOPKINS SPARKLES AMID A PROCESSION.

A NINTH WICKET STAND.

Hongkong made an impressive and encouraging start in the Interport match against Malaya—the last of the series—this morning, getting on top early in the game and never losing their grip, though it began to slip in the last half hour before the tiffin adjournment.

Eight Malayan wickets fell with only 93 runs on the board, but Evan Wong and W. A. B. Smith partially retrieved this disastrous position by putting on forty runs for the ninth wicket without being separated. Prior to their hitting display, the brunt of the Hongkong attack had been borne by Dr. H. O. Hopkins, who gave a plucky, timely and enterprising display.

Dr. Hopkins went in third wicket down and was seventh out, scoring 47 runs out of 72 in roughly an hour. Malaya would have given a sorry display indeed but for his aggressiveness, four of their best batsmen making only 14 runs between them.

The most effective bowler was Bowker, who took four wickets, three of them bowled. Wyatt came in for most punishment, though he did Hongkong excellent service in getting rid of Lal Singh when the young Sikh was settling down. The fielding was a trifle patchy, but no catches were missed.

At tiffin, Malaya had scored 133 runs for the loss of eight wickets. Lieut. Waring, a hard hitter, is to bat.

"DICK" HANCOCK UNABLE TO PLAY.

The weather was perfect and the wicket in excellent state this morning when Hongkong and Malaya tried conclusions, but there was a feeling of great disappointment in the Hongkong camp when it was discovered that "Dick" Hancock, Hongkong's skipper and veteran of Interports, one of the Colony's most dependable players for more than twenty years, was obliged to stand down owing to doctor's orders.

"Tan" Pearce skipped the side, Richardson filling the gap in the team given out last night. Malaya relied on the eleven, which lost to Shanghai.

The teams were:
Hongkong:—T. E. Pearce (captain), W. Brace, E. C. Fincher, H. Owen Hughes, D. J. Anderson, Captain J. R. Reynolds, A. Reid, J. E. Richardson, Lt. Col. F. J. Wyatt, Lieut. W. A. H. Maxwell, and A. C. I. Bowker.
Malaya:—R. B. L. Braddell (captain), W. A. D. Wynch, P. N. Knight, Lal Singh, A. J. Bostock, Hill, H. O. Hopkins, R. G. Gibson, Evan Wong, A. S. A. Jansen, W. A. B. Smith, Lieut. Waring.

Malaya Bat First:
Braddell won the toss and elected to bat, Pearce leading out his team at 10.40 a.m.

The Malayan skipper changed the order of batting, Knight and Wynch being the opening pair. Bowker took the ball at the Naval Yard end and conceded a single to Wynch in his first over. Col. Wyatt was the opening bowler at the other end and no runs came from his first over.

In the fifth over of the match, Knight got Bowker away to leg for a single, the score after twelve minutes' play being six, a very slow start.

The first hit producing more than a single was made by Wynch after a quarter of an hour. He turned Wyatt to leg for two.

Knight bowled.
Before double figures were reached, Hongkong obtained their first success, a splendid ball from Bowker, scattering Knight's wicket. The ball broke in sharply from leg, Knight hitting across it, 9-1-3.

Lal Singh went out encouraged by applause from a fairly big gallery, and scored off his first ball from Bowker. Facing Wyatt, the youthful Sikh showed confidently, though it was not until the fifth ball of the over that he managed to get him away effectively.

He drove Bowker to the screen to register the first boundary of the day after 25 minutes, the score being 15.

Lal Singh Out.

In his next over, Wyatt appeared to be in for punishment. His first two balls produced easy runs and with Lal Singh shaping well, something bright was expected when he again faced Wyatt. He was clean bowled, however, with a ball which he misjudged entirely, moving forward to it, and then jumping hurriedly back—too late. The ball broke in from leg and took his middle stump. The score was 18. Lal Singh having made eight.

Another Wicket.

The tale of Malaya's disasters was not told yet, however, Bostock-Hill scored two singles, putting up 20 after half an hour's play, and then had the misfortune to play on from Bowker. He played outside a fast leg ball, which glanced into his wicket at a fairly fast pace, 21-3-2.

Dr. Hopkins introduced himself with a risky hit off Bowker which went just clear of cover point to the Queen's Road boundary. Wynch, who had made only seven runs in 35 minutes, apparently took encouragement from this, hitting out at a full toss from Bowker, sending him flashing to the leg boundary, putting up 30, and giving himself double figures.

Two singles to Hopkins and one to Wynch brought the score to 34, at which stage Reid replaced Bowker. Wynch pulled him cleverly, but Bowker saved on the boundary. Two of Reid's ball kicked badly, jumping head-high though fairly well pitched up.

Brace Comes On.

After Wyatt had been twice hit, Brace came on at the Supreme Court end, Hopkins lofted his second ball badly, but four runs came, Anderson failing to field it.

Forty appeared as a result, Malaya having been in for 50 minutes. Hopkins had made 11 and Wynch 17.

Hopkins made five off Reid, four of them from a lucky boundary shot which passed between Brace and Owen Hughes in the slips.

A yard to the right or left and he would have been caught.

Wynch brought off a somewhat similar, but safe, shot, but on this occasion, Fincher was waiting on the boundary.

LATEST BLOW TO KUOMINCHUN.

NATIONALISTS TAKE MIHSIEN.

FIERCE FIGHTING EXPECTED NEAR TENGFEI.

ISSUE IN BALANCE.

Hankow, Nov. 12. It is officially reported that Mihsien has been retaken by the Nationalist troops, and this is confirmed by independent sources.

It appears that the Kuominchun defenders were formerly under the command of General Liu Chen-hua (a former supporter of Marshal Feng Yu-shiang) who is now for the Government, and that Liu's emissaries persuaded them to turn over to the Government side.

The Nationalist armies are now pushing towards Tengfei, where further severe fighting is expected. —Reuter.

Fierce Encounters.

Shanghai, Nov. 12. The leaders of the Government Army under Marshal Chiang Kai-shek are reassured in consequence of the arrival of the large contingents of reinforcements from Hankow and the heavy defeat inflicted on the Kuominchun at Mihsien.

Official reports from Hauchang, on the Honan front, state that Mihsien was occupied by the Fierce encounters between the Kuominchun and Nanking troops are still being waged at Lin Yue, with the former still holding out against the onslaught of the Government units.

Heilshikwan, which was the scene of fierce hostilities during the past week, experienced a quiet weekend and no fighting is reported.

Chiang Confers with Germans.

Marshal Chiang Kai-shek, the Nanking Generalissimo, conferred with his German military experts at Hauchang yesterday and made definite plans for the coming general offensive to exterminate the Kuominchun at Tengfei.

It is the intention of Marshal Chiang to mobilize 100,000 Nanking units from the various Honan sectors, concentrating them at Tengfei, with the determination to take the city from General Sun Liang-sing. The best units of the Kuominchun, numbering 100,000, are reported to be holding Teng-

EXCITING RESCUES IN CHANNEL.

ITALIAN SKIPPER STAYS BY HIS SHIP.

FORCED TO ABANDON.

London, Nov. 12. One of the most dramatic incidents of last night's storm was the rescue of the crew of the Italian steamer "Nimbo" which was driven ashore in the Channel near Brighton.

Distress signals were sent up and the Newhaven Motor Lifeboat put out.

Because of the heavy sea the lifeboat could not get near the ship and a rocket apparatus was brought into use.

The first shot was unsuccessful but a second put the line over the ship's wireless aerial, and it was made fast to the rigging.

The crew clambered up the rigging and one by one twenty of them were taken ashore in a breeches buoy.

The captain and nine members of the crew refused to leave the ship and stayed on board working at the pumps.

This afternoon, however, wireless reports of more bad weather in the Channel, led to the order to abandon ship, and the remainder of the crew, with the Captain, were brought ashore by means of the lifeline. —British Wireless.

London, Nov. 12. The Ministry of Labour states that it is estimated that on October 21st there were approximately 10,229,300 insured persons aged from 16 to 64 years in employment in Great Britain. This was 48,700 less than the month before, but 269,100 more than the year before.

On November 4th, there were 1,252,000 thousand unemployed. This was 17,612 more than the week before, but 97,776 less than the year before. —British Wireless.

ASSASSINATION IN SHANGHAI.

KUOMINTANG LEADERS MURDERED.

GANG OF GUNMEN KILL THREE POLITICIANS.

SENSATIONAL AFFAIR.

Shanghai, Nov. 12. One of the most sensational and during assassinations of Chinese Government officials which has occurred for some time took place here shortly before midnight, when a gang of desperadoes, using pistols, opened fire on a party of influential Kuomintang leaders, killing three, as well as a servant, in cold blood.

The outrage is believed to have been organised by political opponents of the Government, which is now taking every possible step to track down those responsible.

How Attack Occurred.

It transpires from various reports that last evening there was a big meeting of Kuomintang members at the City Kuomintang Office and after the conference Mr. Fan Chen-pao (Commissioner of the Executive Committee of the City Kuomintang) in the company of Messrs. Fan Chen-lo and Pei Hsiang (prominent officials of the City Kuomintang) and Han Yichao, (servant to the Commis-

UNFOUNDED FEARS OF A PIRACY.

China Merchant Ship Fails to Answer Signal.

REASSURING MESSAGE.

Fears of an attack by Bias Bay pirates were raised this morning when the s.s. Kinyuan of the China Navigation Co. reported by wireless that at 10 p.m. yesterday, when in Lat. 22° 50' N. Long. 116° 26' E. she saw a China Merchants steamer which passed very close but did not reply to a signal sent out. It was impossible to ascertain the name of the ship which was steaming S. 72° W. in the direction of Bias Bay.

A later message was sent out from the Kinyuan, however, stating that there was no cause for alarm in connexion with the other ship and cancelling the previous message.

The position given puts the Chinese ship just over a hundred miles E. S. E. of Hongkong.

Mr. Horton, the Deputy Inspector-General of Police, who is the last of the 320 prosecution witnesses in the Meerut conspiracy trial, declared, under cross-examination, that he was not charging the Soviet Government, as such, with being a member of the conspiracy.

He added, however, that he was convinced that every member of the Soviet Government is a member of the Russian Communist Party and is bound by its decrees and by those of the Communist Internationale.

Therefore, said Mr. Horton, the Soviet Government is pledged to overthrow the Government of His Majesty the King. —Reuter.

ALL Fatally Wounded.

The firing continued for some minutes and although the exchange of shots attracted the attention of the neighbours, the darkness of the road rendered it dangerous for anyone to come to the assistance of the Kuomintang officials.

The three politicians were all fatally wounded and eventually the servant was also brought down.

A few pedestrians happened to be passing along the street at the moment and three of these were seriously wounded by bullets.

Assassins Escape.

The assassins, after exhausting their ammunition, made good their escape.

The police arrived on the scene promptly, but too late to give any material help to the victims. The four bodies were later removed to the Mortuary, while the three wounded pedestrians were taken to hospital.

One report states that the gang consisted of nine members and that they fired about 100 shots.

STRUGGLE NEXT YEAR.

ALLAHABAD, Nov. 12.

The United Provinces Congress Committee, under the chairmanship of Pandit Nehru, who is President-Elect of the Lahore session of the All-India Congress, has passed a resolution to the effect that the British Government's offer to India, in the light of the Parliamentary explanation, is totally inadequate.

The Committee advises the All-India Congress Executive to continue preparations for a national struggle in 1930. —Reuter.

London, Nov. 12. Mr. Stanley Baldwin, in a letter to the Prime Minister, calls attention to the fact that the Commons debate on India ended without any answer being given by the Secretary of State for India to the question whether the Viceroy's recent proclamation implied any change, in the policy hitherto declared, or in the time when Dominion Status may be attained.

The Prime Minister, in reply, states that the answer to both parts of the question is "No." Mr. MacDonald adds, "The policy, as you will remember, is set out in the preamble of the Government of India Act of 1919, and it stands unchanged, unless and until Parliament decides to amend that Act." —British Wireless.

BRITISH AND DUTCH AIR SERVICES.

ACCUSSION OF JEALOUSY ON BRITAIN'S PART.

The Hague, Nov. 12. The accusation that the British authorities in England and India were actuated by jealousy in placing difficulties in the way of the Holland-East Indies service, was made by a Liberal Member, Meinher Knottenbelt, during a debate on foreign affairs in the second Chamber.

He said that the Dutch services were working well while the British Services overseas were still defective. He suggested that as Imperial air services from Australia were impossible without the co-operation of the Dutch, India that an application on the principle of reciprocity might usefully affect the British Government's attitude. —Reuter.

PLEDGED TO OVERTHROW THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT.

Meerut, Nov. 12. Mr. Horton, the Deputy Inspector-General of Police, who is the last of the 320 prosecution witnesses in the Meerut conspiracy trial, declared, under cross-examination, that he was not charging the Soviet Government, as such, with being a member of the conspiracy.

NEW AMBASSADOR TO MOSCOW.

APPOINTMENT OF SIR ESMOND OVEY.

SIR RONALD LINDSAY BOUND FOR WASHINGTON.

DIPLOMATIC CHANGES.

London, Nov. 12.

The Foreign Office announces that Esmond Ovey, who has been Minister to Mexico since 1925, has been appointed Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to Moscow.

The appointment was made immediately upon Parliamentary approval of the steps taken by Mr. Arthur Henderson in his negotiations with Mr. Doygalevsky, but it is not definitely known when the new Ambassador will present his credentials.

Sir Esmond Ovey has previous experience in Russia though he has never before held a diplomatic post there. He travelled extensively in the country in the early part of the century, visiting the Caucasus Mountains and the Crimea as well as the more populous regions.

Washington Change.

The Foreign Office also announces the appointment of Sir Ronald Lindsay as Ambassador to Washington in succession to Sir Esme Howard, whose term of office expires early in 1930.

Sir Robert Vansittart has been appointed Permanent Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, the office vacated by Sir Ronald Lindsay. —Reuter.

Sir Ronald Lindsay was born in May, 1877, as the 5th son of the 26th Earl of Crawford. He was nominated an Attaché in 1898 and appointed to Petrograd, where he soon received promotion and an allowance for knowledge of Russian. Transferred to Tcherun in July, 1900, he obtained a grant for proficiency in Persian 7 months later.

Formerly in the States.

After serving in Washington and Paris he entered the Foreign Office in Nov. 1908, becoming assistant private secretary to Sir Edward Grey—a post he held till March, 1909.

In September 1911, he was sent to The Hague where he was promoted first secretary and on several occasions acted as chargé d'affaires. He was secretary to the British delegate to the International Opium Conference.

He went to Egypt in 1913 as under-secretary in the Ministry of Finance, but reverted to the diplomatic service in March, 1919, after which he was appointed first secretary and acting assistant counsellor at Washington where for some months he was chargé d'affaires. In Aug. 1920, he was transferred to Paris and given the rank of Minister Plenipotentiary.

His appointment as principal assistant secretary at the Foreign Office with the designation of Assistant Under-Secretary of State followed in 1921, but in 1924, when he was appointed a Privy Counsellor, he again went abroad, this time as British representative at Constantinople. He became Ambassador there in the following year, succeeding Sir H. Rumbold. His masterly handling of the dangerous Mosul question was among the finest diplomatic achievements of the age.

Married Americans.

In July, 1926, he was appointed to succeed Lord O'Abernon as Ambassador at Berlin, taking up his post in November. He was not long in the German capital, for when Sir William Tyrrell was moved from the Foreign Office to the Paris Embassy in July, 1928, Sir Ronald Lindsay took his place as Permanent Under-Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs. In March 1928, he had accompanied Sir A. Chamberlain to the meeting of the League Council.

Sir Ronald, who was knighted (K.C.M.G.) in 1923, is an imposing, elderly figure and a typical diplomatist. His first wife was a daughter of "Senator" Donald Cameron of Pennsylvania. She died in 1908, and in 1924 he married another American, Miss Elizabeth Hoyt, a lady of many accomplishments, who is a daughter of the late Colgate Hoyt, the New York financier.

SANITARY BOARD.

GOVERNMENT SUGGESTS A CHANGE.

The proposal of the Government to consider the desirability of appointing the Director of Medical and Sanitary Services to be a member of the Sanitary Board in the place of the Medical Officer of Health was mentioned at the fortnightly meeting of the Board yesterday when it was decided to defer discussion until further information of the Government's intention was obtained.

The meeting was presided over by Mr. W. J. Carrie (Head of the Sanitary Department), those present being Dr. C. W. Pope, (Medical Officer of Health), Dr. W. V. M. Koch, the Hon. Mr. J. P. Braga, Messrs. Wong Kwong-tin, T. N. Chau, M. K. Lo and J. Watson (secretary).

Government's Views.

The chairman read the following letter from the Government relative to the suggested appointment of the Director of Medical and Sanitary Services to the Board in the place of the Medical Officer of Health:

Sir,—With reference to your letter No. S. B. O. 297/29 dated 16th October, I am directed to inform you that with a view to the reorganization of the Medical and Sanitary Services of the Colony on more modern lines, the Government is of the opinion that it is desirable to associate the Director of Medical and Sanitary Services more closely with the work of the Sanitary Department. In order that the Director may have the opportunity of acquiring first-hand knowledge of the working of that department, it is proposed to amend the Public Health and Buildings Ordinance so as to permit him to take the place of the Medical Officer of Health on the Sanitary Board and I am accordingly to request you to place this proposal before the Board and to favour Government with its views as early as possible.—Yours, etc.,

(Sd) E. I. WYNN-JONES,
Colonial Secretary.

The Chairman mentioned that the letter had only reached him on Friday afternoon and that copies had been circulated to members of the Board. He thought that the Board had had very little time and perhaps members would like to take a little longer. He had not been able to find out the opinion of the Board and all that he proposed to do was that the letter should be laid on the table then and be opened for discussion at the next meeting, when members could put forward any motions that they wished.

Continuing, the Chairman intimated that members, if they so desired, could express their views on the matter at once but he thought it was desirable that notice of any motions should be given.

Dr. Koch asked if the suggestion in the letter was an accomplished fact or whether members had an opportunity to express their views.

The Chairman re-read parts of the letter and pointed out that the Government merely desired the views of the Board although the Government was of opinion that it was a desirable step.

The Chairman proposed that the matter be deferred to the next meeting before the Board expressed its views.

Dr. Koch seconded.

Members' Views.

The Hon. Mr. Braga said that before the motion was put to the meeting he thought a little more information should be given. The speaker asked whether the Board was required to express their opinion on the appointment of the Director of Medical and Sanitary Services in the place of the Medical Officer of Health or whether there was something else aimed at. If the proposal of the Government was going beyond the mere appointment of the D.M.S.S. as a member of the Board, as

CATHEDRAL WEDDING.

LT.-COM. COOPER MARRIED TO MISS FFORD.

A naval wedding took place at St. John's Cathedral yesterday afternoon when Lieut. Commander William Guy Loy Cooper, R.N., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Cooper, of Aislabury Hall, Pickering, Yorkshire, was married to Miss Frances Creswell Mita Patricia Ford, daughter of Mr. Ford, M.I.C.E., and the late Mrs. Agnes Gladys Ford. The service was conducted by the Dean.

The bride was given away by Lieut. Commander L. M. Bridge, R.N., and was attended by two bridesmaids, Miss Joan Beavis and Miss Ainslie Hallifax. Lieut. Commander J. D. F. Dowse, R.N., was best man.

After the wedding, a reception was held at the house of Lieut. Commander L. M. Bridge and Mrs. Bridge at the naval dockyard.

he had already heard it rumoured, then he thought that the Board should be acquainted of that fact.

Mr. Lo endorsed the remarks of the Hon. Mr. Braga. He said that although on the face of it the plan appeared to be absolutely plain it made their position slightly difficult because of the Government's reference to the reorganization of the Medical and Sanitary Services of the Colony on more modern lines.

Continuing, Mr. Lo asked how much information as to future policy was supposed to be contained in that sentence. The speaker mentioned that it was the Hon. Mr. Braga had said, the Government's proposal was not meant to go beyond the appointment of the D. M. S. S. He ventured to say that no member of the Board would consider it undesirable. They would welcome him.

Amendment Proposed.

Mr. Lo agreed with the Hon. Mr. Braga that before they would usefully put forward their views they wanted to know more of the Government's intentions. Mr. Lo, in conclusion, suggested that the Hon. Mr. Braga put forward an amendment to the Chairman's proposal, asking for further information from the Government.

The Chairman replied that if the Board desired that he should obtain further information he would have to do so. He pointed out that the Government was not playing a trick on the Board and again mentioned the contents of the letter as to the Government's intentions. He said that they were only asked to give their views on that particular point.

The Hon. Mr. Braga remarked that the particular point was clear enough but mentioned the other part of the letter dealing with the reorganization of the Medical and Sanitary Services. The speaker proposed as a specific amendment that further information be obtained from the Government.

Mr. Lo seconded and the amendment was carried.

Disposal of Rubbish.

Referring to a minute relative to the working of incinerators in Shanghai, the Chairman said that some time ago the Hon. Mr. Braga drew the attention of the Board to an incinerator in Shanghai which was erected at a cost of $150,000. Enquiries were made and it was found that a liquid fuel ray burner would be too expensive.

The Chairman mentioned that disposal by junks cost less than 40 cents per ton while by dumping on a certain reclamation scheme the cost was 20 cents per ton. Speaking of experiments carried out in connexion with the incinerator, the Chairman said that the first experiment cost $15,619 per ton, while the second cost $15,624 per ton. He remarked that the difference between $15.6 and 40 cents was colossal. Honk Kong, he said, had the cheapest means of disposing of rubbish.

ENJOYABLE CONCERT.

OPEN-AIR EVENT ON THE H.K.C.C. GROUND.

The open-air concert held at the Hongkong Cricket Club ground last night was one of the most enjoyable social functions that has followed in the train of the inter-port visit. There was a nip in the air, just enough to make an overcoat necessary, but not enough to make people shiver in their seats on the lawn.

Mr. Fitz-Earle, A.R.C.M., K.O.S.B., brought his band from the battalion camp situated at some distant wooded point up the railway line, and showed us that their short stay there has done them no harm. The bandsmen were in fine form and gave several of their best tunes. "The Hunting Scene," which has been popular at a number of K.O.S.B. concerts, and two very good musical sketches.

One of the most attractive items on the programme was a song by Mrs. Sanger, with the accompaniment of the band. For an encore—the audience resolutely refused to allow her to leave without one—she chose the song "Shadow and Light," composed by Mr. George Grimbale.

Mr. Oscar Eager, the well-known amateur comedian, did not appear owing to circumstances, but his place was filled by Mr. Dick Barty who kept us all amused for ten minutes with witty song and story.

The programme was as follows: Selection by the Band; Song, Mrs. Sanger, (accompanied by the band); Song, Mr. Li Chor Chi (Violin Obligato by Mr. John Braga); Song, Mr. A. Hyde Lay; Song, Mr. Dick Barty; Selections by the band; Song Medley, Messrs. Bellamy, Davenport, Browne, Hancock, Scot-Little, Tison, Griggs, and Messrs. Anniss, Erock, Griggs, Green, MacDonald, Parker; Songs with Piano and Banjo, Major, Tuke and Lt. Musson; Song, Mrs. Younghusband; Vocal Duet, Mr. D. W. Leach and Mr. E. G. Barnes; Selection by the Band; God Save the King.

The accompanists were: Mrs. Griggs, Mr. P. Madar and Mr. George Grimbale.

PORTUGUESE FINED.

WIFE INSTRUCTED TO APPEAR FOR HUSBAND.

Appearing on behalf of Mr. Britto, the owner of motor car No. 2671, Mrs. Britto informed the Kowloon Magistrate yesterday afternoon that her husband was away from the Colony and that she had been instructed to pay his fines on charges of driving a car without head lights and of failing to produce his licence.

Mrs. Britto said that she knew nothing about the incident and his Worship accepted her statement as an admission on her husband's behalf.

Sub-Inspector McWalter remarked that at the time of the offences the defendant was not a licensed driver.

His Worship asked why he had not been charged with driving a car without a licence.

Sub-Inspector McWalter replied that it was not until sometime after that the Police discovered the defendant had no licence.

On the first charge a fine of $7 was imposed while a further fine of $3 was imposed on the second.

SOVIET PLANE NOT TO TRY TO CROSS ATLANTIC.

New York, Nov. 12. The Aviation Society of Moscow has banned a proposed trans-Atlantic flight by the "Land of the Soviets."—Reuter's American Service.

[The "Land of the Soviets" recently arrived in America after a protracted flight from Russia, via Siberia, Japan, and the northern Pacific islands.]

Most Admired by any man

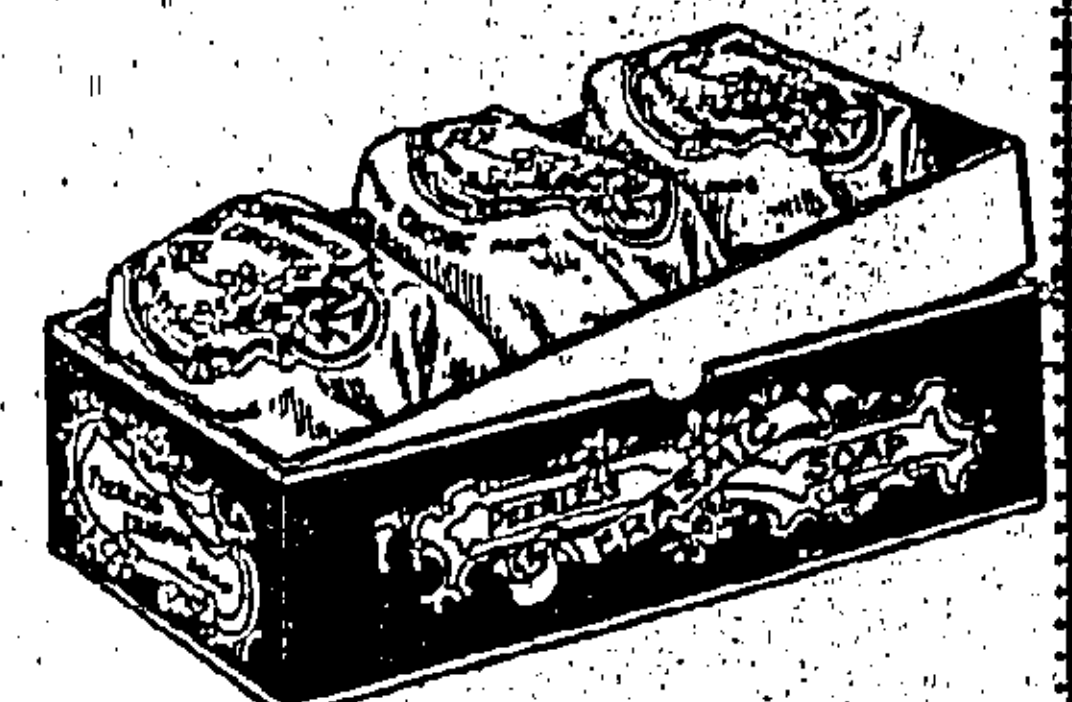

ASK a number of men what feature of womanly beauty is most attractive to them; and in the vast majority of cases, the answer will be, "a clear, fresh complexion."

The woman who seeks skin loveliness must learn one great secret—that the soap she uses plays a vital part in maintaining the firm texture and clear healthy tinting of her skin. This is why so many women use exclusively

PEERLESS ERASMIC
The Dainty SOAP

They know they can entrust their beautiful complexions to the balm smoothness of Peerless Erasmic lather, which so gently cleanses the skin of all impurities. They know that the tonic herbs and nourishing oils maintain the healthy texture—the velvety softness and clear glowing colour. Peerless Erasmic has the alluring, exquisite fragrance of hedge-row violets. Try it and see how grateful it is to your skin.

THE POPPY SALE.

OTHERS WHO ASSISTED IN THE COLLECTION.

It is impossible as yet to give definite information as to the total amount collected in Hongkong, Kowloon and South China, as various areas have not yet sent in their returns. It seems, however, evident that the results of street collections are better than last year. On the other hand the attractions of Interport Cricket had the effect of reducing the returns from the usual auctions and football match. Further auctions are still to be held and the Committee sincerely hopes that it will receive good support, and that a really satisfactory sum of money will be sent home to this great Fund.

Very unfortunately, however, the Committee has to face remitting home at a most unfavourable rate of exchange as compared with last year and this will make a very great difference when it comes to changing the money into sterling. The Poppy Day Sub-Committee of the British Legion desires to thank the ladies and gentlemen who so kindly assisted.

The Hongkong Sales were under the direction of Mrs. F. Syme Thomson, and in addition to those mentioned yesterday Misses K. Blair, B. Blair, B. Steel, V. Bradbury and D. Stewart sold Poppies.

Happy Valley sales, under the direction of Mr. Edmonds of the Hongkong Civil Service Cricket Club.—Mrs. Wood, the Misses H. Grimmer, G. Grimmer, J. Ewing, M. Glendinning, E. Glendinning, P. Wood, M. Taylor, F. Fowler, J. Smith, F. Grimmer, Murphy, and Mr. D. Taylor.

Misses E. Hunt, B. Hunt, D. Hunt, Mr. Norman Reynolds, and Mr. Leslie Reynolds, were responsible for the Police sales, and Misses E. Calvert and L. Salmon at Victoria Prison.

Chinese War Memorial sales were undertaken by Mrs. Irene Chan.

The Tai Kok Club sales were under the direction of Mr. Stewart Hope, the Misses Nan Laiting, Gracie Swan, Betty Bone, Gertrude McNeillie, Jean Stewart, and Muriel Grimes, being the sellers.

The Kowloon Dock Recreation Club sales were under the direction of Mrs. G. H. Cuthill. The helpers were Misses M. Adam, M. Tillery, M. Gow, N. Kempton, C. Mitchell and J. Owen.

Committee's Thanks.

The Committee desires to express its sincere thanks to the Hongkong Football Association, and to Mr. W. E. Hollands, for donating the entire proceeds of the Football match at Happy Valley, between the Services and the Rest of the Colony; to Major Cranke and Officers of the K.O.S.B. for the Band, and to the Police Headquarters for police protection.

The Committee has also to thank all those who so kindly assisted by displaying posters, the Advertising and Publicity Bureau, the Hongkong Tramways, Ltd., the Star Ferry Co., Ltd., and the Peak Tramways, Ltd., for their very valuable help in publicity.

The Committee is also very greatly indebted to Messrs. Lane Crawford, Ltd., Messrs. Whiteaway Laidlaw and Co., Ltd., and Messrs. A. S. Watson and Co., Ltd., for their splendid window displays.

Thanks also must be made to Mrs. Sheldon for the very kind use of her car in selling the special Poppy Day Garlands.

Special thanks are also necessary to Mrs. J. M. Woods for the kind loan of her photograph of the late Earl Haig. The sale of reproductions of this photograph has greatly assisted in augmenting the Funds.

Loan of Launches.

Special thanks also are made to the Cathedral Church, Body, the Catholic Mission, the Union Church, and St. Andrew's Church for collections taken at the Armistice Day Services.

Special mention, too, must be made of the services rendered by Mr. C. M. Manners in organising in conjunction with Mrs. J. H. Hunt, collections in the harbour, and special thanks are necessary to the Hongkong and Kowloon Wharf and Godown Company for the loan of launches.

The Committee also desires to thank Miss P. Heney, Messrs. C. P. Heney, J. H. Hunt, O.B.E., Stan Hill, and H. A. Rogers for posters and publications given in aid of the auctions; also to thank Messrs. Lane Crawford, Ltd., Messrs. Goldbeck MacGregor and Co. Ltd., Messrs. Donnelly and Whyte, Messrs. Gande Price and Co., Ltd., for very generous gifts in support of the auctions.

The Committee would like to express its very sincere thanks to the Press for their very kind, keen, and absolutely invaluable co-operation.

How He Does It.

"How do I keep in good form? Well, besides lots of practice, which is necessary of course, I take a little dose of Pinkettes occasionally, to ensure freedom from those attacks of liver and intestinal derangement which are so liable to put one off one's stroke at times."

Of chemists everywhere, Pinkettes, the gentle little laxatives and liver regulators, are also obtainable at 60 cents per vial, from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 60, Kiangse Road, Shanghai.

"ALIBI" TALKIE.

SOME FACTS ABOUT ITS PRODUCER.

Much of the romance of motion pictures isn't on the screen, or in the lives of the people that the public sees, and nowadays hears, on the screen. Take for instance the genius who made "Alibi," the mystery film sensation that is showing at the Queen's Theatre.

He is Roland West, producer-director of the underworld thriller and one of the most interesting personalities in the amusement world.

West, the son of Margaret Van Tassel, a well-known actress on the legitimate stage, got his start in the theatre from his aunt, Cora Van Tassel, a star and stage producer who died a few years ago in Seattle at an advanced age.

Though stage fright marked his first appearance before the footlights, he made good and remained with the show throughout the entire run.

At seventeen, West took Emmet Corrigan's role in "Jockey Jones," a popular American play in the early years of the twentieth century. A year or so later West branched out as a writer, with a vaudeville sketch that he prepared in collaboration with W. H. Clifford. The youth starred in his own playlets for Loew's Circuit. Later he produced acts on his own hook and booked them over Loew's and other circuits.

During this period the young producer had as many as fifty-three acts appearing in theatres.

West and Schenck entered the picture business together. When Schenck with the production of "Lost Souls," starring Judd Collins, costing $25,000, definitely cast his lot with the new form of art, West became general manager of the producing unit. He directed Norma Talmadge's thirteenth feature under the Schenck banner—"De Luxe Annie"—and then temporarily left the picture business to produce "The Unknown Purple" on the legitimate stage. Two years later he returned as an associate producer in the Schenck organization. During the past few years West has produced and directed several successful pictures, including "The Unknown Purple," "The Monster," "The Bat," and "The Dove," starring Norma Talmadge.

West believes in making only one picture a year and making that one well. The preparations for a West picture take as long as the actual filming. West's home life is ideal. His wife is Jewel Carmen, former film star and at one time leading lady for Douglas Fairbanks, William Farnum and others.

LETTER GOLF.

Making your ball FALL into the cup is the same as making it SINK. Except in letter golf where there is a four-stroke difference.

1.—The idea of letter golf is to change one word to another and do it in par, a given number of strokes. Thus to change COW to HEN, in three strokes, COW, HOW, HEW, HEN.

2.—You can change only one letter at a time.

3.—You must have a complete word, of common usage, for each jump. Slang words and abbreviations don't count.

4.—The order of letters cannot be changed.

WOMAN'S WORLD

FOR OUR LADY READERS.

(Left) Very feminine is a royal blue transparent velvet evening wrap, with bloused back and tight hipline and flaring fullness about the bottom, introduced by godels. A huge Russian ermine collar adorns it. (Right) Smart and youthful is the black-white velvet evening wrap. The white velvet fashions a full cape collar and joins the black to make the front panels.

Matters of Interest Platinum in Favour.

FORMAL EVENING
DRESS.

A rather severe evening gown is made of black satin, with a pleated skirt and a petalled bodice. The bodice has a lining of pale pink chiffon, and, as the pearls are only attached to the satin at the top, they disclose the pink chiffon. In this way the severe effect of the gown, which is otherwise free from any decoration, is lessened.

Unusual Bag.

A fashionable bag, meant for use with a beige or brown ensemble, looks as if it is made out of two ordinary table mats, sewn together, with the purse in between. The material is in reality corded silk, and is shaded in tones of fawn and brown, while the bag in the middle is made of fawn coloured silk. The finished article is carried by a gold chain like an expanding watch bracelet.

Autumn Millinery.

Dull and coarse straws are being shown for early autumn days and reveal a return to severe styles. One of the newest models is of coarse shiny straw in a sailor shape, and its only decoration is a double black silk cord, tied in a bow at one side.

For the Schoolgirl.

An autumn jumper suit for the school-girl has a narrow striped jumper with a close-fitting, round neck, and a short red skirt with flares at either side. A novel touch is added by the hem of the skirt, which is cut into a two-inch fringe all the way round.

New Shoulder Flowers.

Large posies of flowers for evening frocks are being replaced by small dainty blooms of chiffon, with centres of glass silk. These are usually placed on very long stalks of glass silk in the same or a contrasting colour, so that they hang in a careless bunch from the shoulder.

Precious metals, and platinum in particular, play an important part in the new jewellery designs.

They are no longer being used solely as settings, but are given a prominent place in the pattern itself.

Not only does metal lend itself to almost every decorative scheme, but it forms a striking background to the lustrous surface of the precious stones themselves, whether faceted or cabochon cut, and thus emphasises their shining beauty.

Bracelets composed of gold and platinum links worked in different patterns provide another example of the glorification of metal. Some of these have a pattern of gems in the centre, but the majority are composed entirely of metal, relying on the beauty of their shape for their effect.

Polished platinum is also introduced into the newest cigarette case designs. In many cases onyx forms the background for artist designs in metal.

Pearls and Petit Point.

An intricate pattern of seed pearls and petit point makes a luxurious bag for evening use. The pearls are used to cover the larger part of the bag's surface, and outline knots of red roses worked in petit point. The gold mount is also set with pearls.

Jade and Silver Clock.

Two crouching figures in pale green jade form an effective base for a clock of jade and silver. The circular clock face, which has silver figures, is surrounded by a narrow band of silver and a broader one of the jade, and the hares form a rest at each side.

Glass Bracelet.

A wide, thick bracelet made of glass is a novel piece of jewellery, and would make an acceptable present. Fashioned in oblong pieces

SECRET OF SEASON'S ATTRACTIVE MILLINERY.

What is the secret of the becoming millinery that is being worn this season? For the new hats are growing unusually kind to their wearers.

One of the chief reasons why the new models are so attractive is that they are practically moulded to the shape of the head. The hat line—with or without the brim—is studied from every angle, and the back view and the profile effect are considered just as carefully from an artistic point of view as the front of the hat.

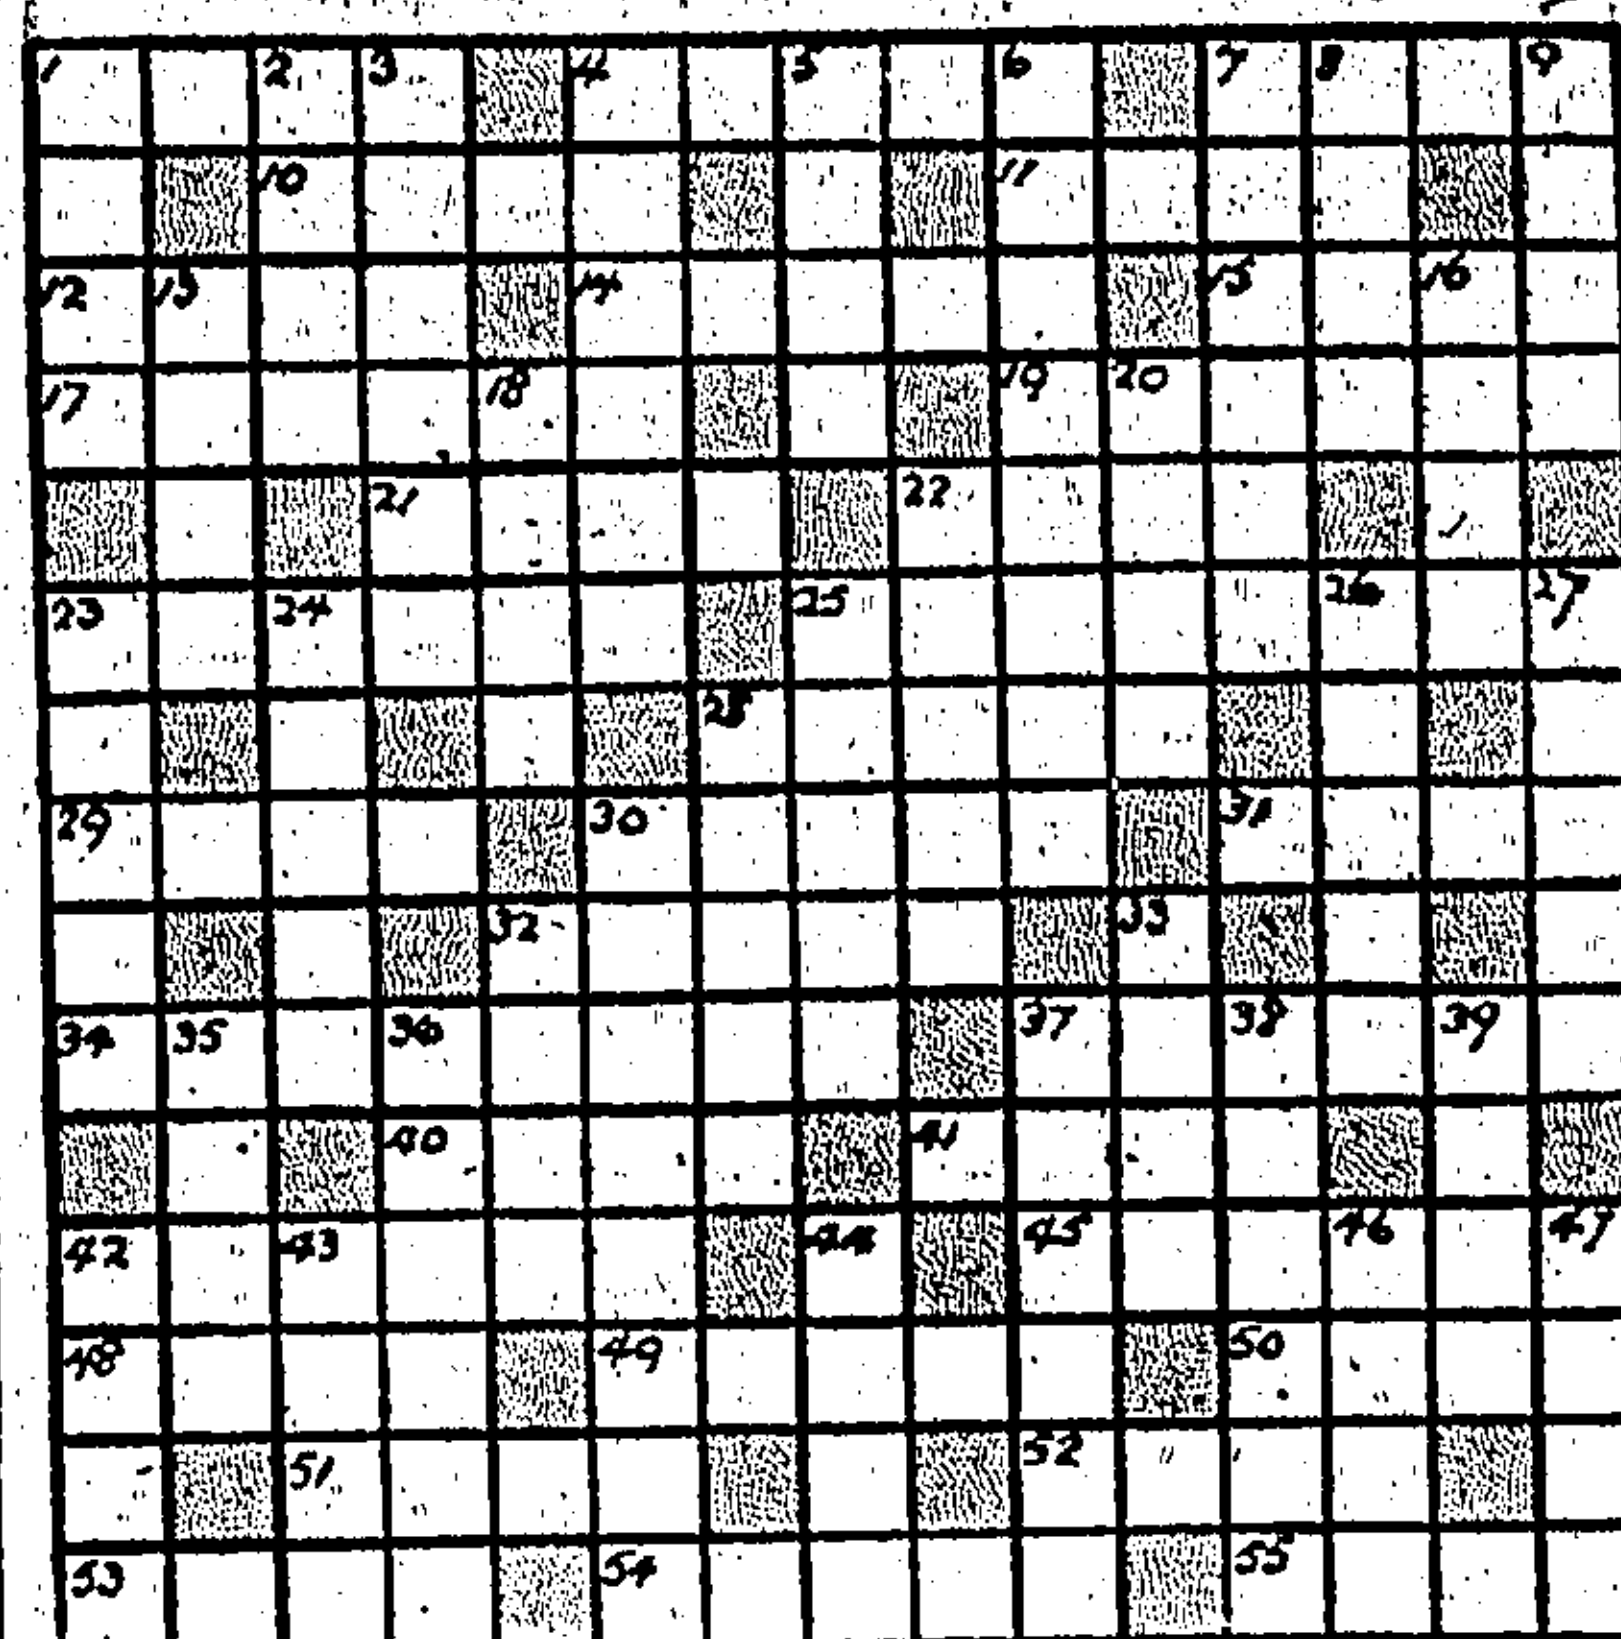

These new hats become their wearers from every point of view. Autumn millinery is not always so prone to take on the youthful and becoming air that it takes this season. Felt, velours, taupe, however, are used in a new way with a skill which brings them into line with the present age of youth.

Colours, too, have their charm, and the new beige shades, the new tomato reds, the luscious peach tints, and the autumn browns and greens, are all delightful, and prove another youthful and becoming factor in the millinery of the moment.

The close-fitting beret will be one of the most popular millinery modes this autumn. Then the ear-cap, as it is called! In some models the droop is at one side only; in others, the tiny bonnet brim is cut into points. These little close-fitting hats are charming for youth, and bestow a softening line of beauty on the older woman, if carefully chosen as regards colour and line.

of cloudy Lillique glass, each partition has a delicate design of lilies-of-the-valley imprinted on it. If desired the favourite flower of the wearer can be substituted for the lilies.

Yesterday's Solution.

"LADDIE."

A MAJESTIC THEATRE
ATTRACTION.

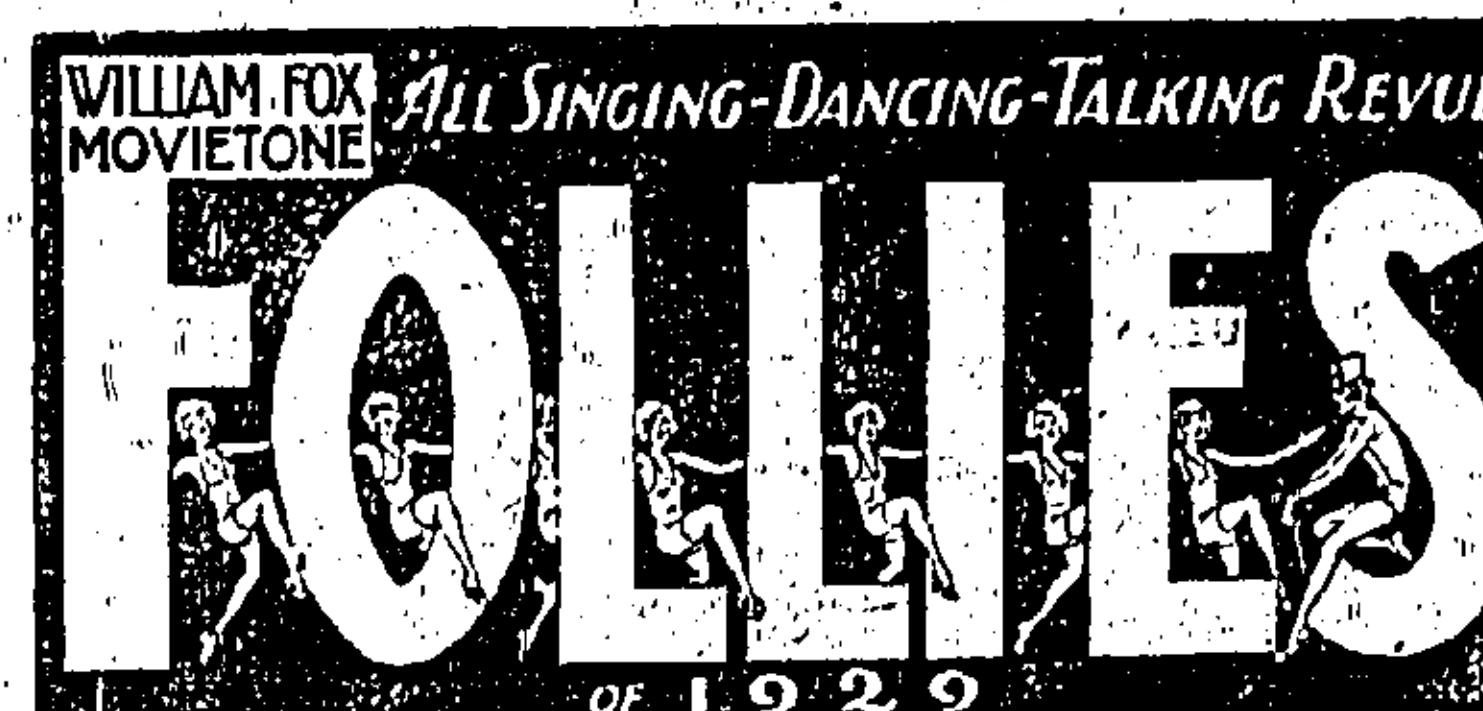

The wholesomeness and warmth of spirit, the sweetness, without a saccharine cloying, that is typical of Gene Stratton-Porter at her best, have been caught and held with rare tact and understanding in "Laddie," which was shown at the Majestic Theatre, Kowloon, yesterday. The latest production, based on the works of this most popular of novelists, adheres with splendid fidelity to the original book.

"Laddie," with its delightful

comedy of boy and girl life, with its intensely human action, is a story that could have come from no other pen than that of America's most famous woman author.

The phenomenal success of little Gene Stratton-Porter in "The Keeper of the Bees" is repeated in "Laddie." Playing in her second picture, the granddaughter of Mrs. Porter all but steals the acting honours from such splendid and seasoned troupers as John Bowers, David Torrence and others. Bess Flowers as Pamela, and John Bowers as Laddie play the title roles.

"Laddie," will be repeated again to-day.

THE FREEDOM OF THE SEAS.

Although the Freedom of the Seas is not among the questions to be raised at the coming Five-Power Naval Conference in London, it is quite clear that the subject must have been discussed between President Hoover and Mr.
Ramsay MacDonald when the latter was in the United States. We gather so much from the fact that within the space of two days both the U. S. President and the British Premier have referred to it in the course of important speeches, and what is more significant still, that each has taken up the same attitude in making mention of it. Mr.
Ramsay MacDonald pointed out that the problem of the Freedom of the Seas could only arise after the league of war had been blown,
and that the surest method of solving the problem was to see that they never blew again. Compare this utterance with Mr. Hoover's remark that if the world succeeds in establishing peaceful methods of settling controversies, the whole question of trading rights in war becomes purely academic. The similarity of outlook is most pronounced.

But whilst it is right and proper that stress should be laid on the pacific settlement of disputes amongst nations, which have approved the Anti-War Pact, we cannot help thinking that this question of the Freedom of the Seas
will have to be adjusted in the long run, and be placed on a more satisfactory basis than it now is.
We shall not be over-stating the truth if we say that one of the main causes of Anglo-American friction before the United States came into the war—and it is one which has persisted since—was that Britain and her Allies operated a blockade under which American ships carrying foodstuffs and other material to enemy countries
were seized upon the high seas.
This, as we know, led to diplomatic protests at the time, not only on the part of the United States but also by other neutral nations whose commerce was similarly hampered. The policy followed by the Allies was declared by them affected to be in violation of the Declaration of London, an international agreement provisionally ratified by the principal Powers of the world, dealing with the questions of contraband and blockade.

Notwithstanding this, however,
Britain, under a series of Orders-in-Council, made in 1915, declared that enemy goods in neutral ships would be seized in retaliation for the German submarine campaign.
The stoppage of enemy imports
was, however, a difficult matter,
for neutral nations had to be treated with consideration, and American public opinion had to be conciliated. The problems involved were very complicated, involving not only the searching of neutral ships, but the determination of what goods were genuinely intended for neutral consumption.
Ultimately, the neutrals were induced to accept a system of rationing, based on pre-war supplies.
It is worth recalling, in passing,
that the Declaration of London
has by no means been accepted
with unanimity in Britain, its critiques arguing that it was framed solely with a view to our interest
as neutrals, that our real interest
as a sea power is as a belligerent,
and that the Declaration weakens
our belligerent rights.

We recall these points because they vitally concern the whole question of the Freedom of the Seas and illustrate the complexities of the problem. President Hoover has put forward an idea that all food-ships be placed on the same footing as hospital ships
in war-time, arguing, with true humanitarian instincts, that the time has come when the starvation
of women and children should be removed from the weapons of warfare. His suggestion will find a responsive chord in many quarters, but it remains to be seen whether it will meet with unanimous support from the other Powers. One other suggestion which we recently encountered was that maritime nations should compromise by agreeing to abandon their belligerent rights in private wars, while retaining them for wars in which they act with the authority of the League or against a breaker of the Kellogg Pact. It may be that in course of time some such solution as this will be arrived at, but the prime essential would appear to be that the whole issue be calmly considered at some future international conference.

The Dog Law.

Sergeant Kelly is to be congratulated on knowing a strange dog
when he sees one and upon tracing its origin even unto the vessel
from which it made its surreptitious entry into the Colony. At the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday
Captain Robinson of the Empress of France was fined $5 for allowing the dog to be moved without a permit and the owner was fined in the sum of $25 for importing the animal, having omitted to follow the formula laid down in the Regulations—with a capital R. The more fact that the creature was a Hongkong dog, had been licensed in the Colony, had accompanied its owner to Shanghai for a six months' visit, and bore a health certificate from a Veterinary Hospital in Shanghai, made not the slightest difference
to the seriousness of the offence, according to the Police. Although the S. Hyodo's Veterinary Hospital in Shanghai is an institution far superior to any establishment
for the cure and treatment of dogs existing in this Colony, its certificate is not recognised here.
Perhaps an assurance of the health of a dog is less important than the filling up of a form or
two. The owner, of course, was entirely in the wrong in omitting to fulfil the requirements of the regulations, but we are inclined to the view that it takes more than this to render an offence really serious. The case, we believe, was the first of its kind, and the circumstances related rather supported the original feeling of the Magistrate, who queried
whether the matter called for sterner treatment than a case involving an unlicensed dog. The outbreak of rabies which gave

IMPROPER LIGHTS ON
LAUNCH.COXSAIN'S EXPLANATION
NOT BELIEVED.

When charged before Mr. T. W.
H. Hosegood at the Marine Court
this morning with failing to exhibit regulation lights whilst under way, the coxswain of the steam launch Tagawa denied the offence but had no witness to corroborate the story he related to his Worship.

Sgt. Hudson testified that he was on duty on No. 5 Police Launch at about 6.45 p.m. on November 7 when he saw a launch on his starboard side with two white lights burning forward but with no port light. On approaching the launch, he found the port light burning but it had been shifted to such a position that it was not visible to other craft in the vicinity.

Sgt. Olivier also gave evidence to the same effect.
Asked what he had to say, defendant stated he was on his way from Yau-mati to Wanchai when he was asked to stop by the Police launch. He had his lights burning and everything was in order.
In order to allow the police launch
to draw alongside his own launch, he shifted the port light to the position in which the police officers found it.

Sgt. Hudson—Why were you steering in a westerly direction, if,
as you have just stated, you were
on your way from Yau-mati to Wanchai?

As the defendant could not give
a satisfactory reply to this question and as he had witness to bear out his story, his Worship decided to convict.

A fine of $5.00 two weeks was imposed.

DROVE DIRECT AT A
SERGEANT.SIX MONTHS' PRISON FOR A CAR DRIVER.

A public car driver, whose licence had been taken away from him owing to a long list of offences, was stated at the Central Police Court this morning to have driven direct at a European Police Sergeant, all but knocking him
down.

Giving evidence, Sergeant W.
McLeod said that in the early morning of Thursday he was on duty at Cause Road when he observed the approach of a car,
it was driven by the defendant and contained a large number of people talking noisily together.

With a view to investigating,
witness put up his hand as a signal for the car to stop. After sounding the horn four times,
however, the defendant accelerated and drove at witness,
who had to jump quickly out of the way to avoid being knocked
down.

There were four charges against the defendant, these being of driving without a licence, driving dangerously, disobeying the orders of a policeman and of taking the car out without the permission of the owner.

Inspector Nicol, prosecuting, produced a list of eight previous convictions against the defendant
for totting, and another conviction for dangerous driving when he took a car out of a stand at Chater Road and ran into a shop
after losing control. The officer mentioned that on account of those offences, the C.S.P. had taken away
the defendant's licence.

The Magistrate (Mr. A. W. G. H.
Grantham) convicted defendant on all four charges, and inflicted sentences aggregating six months'
hard labour.

STOLE PEN FROM A
EUROPEAN.DAYLIGHT THEFT OCCURS IN PEDDER STREET.

The ingenious manner in which
two young thieves stole a fountain pen from a European, named F.
Justus, was related by the Police at the Central Magistracy this morning, when they charged one of the culprits with the theft.

It was stated that at about 10 o'clock on Monday morning, Mr.
F. Justus was walking along Pedder Street when he felt himself being nudged by some one. This turned out to be only a piece of stratagem,
for as his attention was taken up with the man who had nudged him,
he became aware of the fact that a second person coming up on the other side had extracted a fountain pen from his breast pocket. This man ran away and made his escape
with the pen, but left his accomplice behind in the hands of Mr.
Justus.

Answering to the name of Lam Chau-tim, it was found that the defendant was known to the police,
having at one time served a sentence of six weeks for larceny.
He now received nine months'
hard labour after pleading guilty
to the charge.

The Very Idea!

Here is the worst case of stammering known to a doctor who has treated many sufferers from this disability, which has been a good deal discussed lately as a result of the inquiry, "Do women stammer?" A man it was, the doctor spoke about. He came away from a party in the West-end of London, and he wanted to be driven home, but he could not tell a taxi-driver where he wanted to go, and actually walked to his rooms, some distance away! "Nerves," said the doctor, "nothing but nerves."

"Jones won't be at the office
this week, sir, owing to a nerve-ment in the family."
"Oh! indeed! Who's dead this time?"
"Jones, sir."

WHO WAS...
SCHEHERAZADE?

Scheherazade was the famous lady who saved her neck by her ability to tell a good story.

The wife of the Sultan Schahriar of Persia being unfaithful to him, that august monarch decided that no woman was virtuous, whereupon he resolved to marry a fresh wife every evening and strangle her when the first rays of dawn appeared in the sky.

Several wives shared that fate, but Scheherazade,
daughter of the vizier, when she married the Sultan managed to begin a story
every morning just before sunrise, and to break it off in the middle when the dawn came,
so that the Sultan had to wait until the next morning to hear its end, when the inventive young lady would engage his interest in a further tale.

This went on for a thousand and one nights, when the Sultan allowed his young wife
to live in peace as a reward
for her ingenuity, and found her to be a faithful and joyous spouse.

The stories that Schehera-zade told are called, "Arabian Nights Entertainment."

COMMUNIST ARMY DEFEATED.DRIVEN TO HILLS BY SWATOW ARMY.*$40,000 COLLECTED IN DAY AT KAYING.*BEING FOLLOWED UP.

Swatow, Nov. 10.

The campaign against the Communists under Chu and Mo has at last produced some results, though the first reliable news of their having been defeated came with that of their depredations in retreat.

A section of the force led by Chu himself appeared suddenly in the vicinity of the city of Kaying, the capital of the Hakka country. The place was held by but a small force, who went out to meet the Communists, but were routed in a short time, after suffering casualties in dead and wounded.

Threat to Loot.

The defending force having been put to flight, the city lay open to the Communists. These entered in orderly manner, put the magistrate under restraint, held the yamen, and then issued an ultimatum to the Chamber of Commerce. They demanded the sum of $40,000 on pain of giving the place over to the soldiers to loot.

The Chamber of Commerce got busy and levied contributions throughout the city, raising $40,000 in less than twenty-four hours. Chu, when offered this sum, protested that it was far from enough and renewed his threats.

Then unexpectedly and suddenly on the news that part of the 1st Division, part of which had been sent up from Swatow, was approaching, he accepted a demand for the sum of $40,000 and retired, his men subsequently, it is said, splitting up into fragments in the hills.

Fortunate Escape.

Kaying, which is a wealthy place, having business men abroad as well as doing a big inland trade itself, was extremely fortunate to get off with a comparatively small loss; and the success against the Communists has lifted a cloud from the country-side generally.

The attack on the Communists was first successful from the Kiangsi side. They were driven down the river from the north. Although they held together sufficiently to enter Kaying in force, what power seems to be broken; what is left of them was said at first to be dissipated among the hiding places of the hills; but it now appears that under Chu's skillful leadership they are still an organized body, and have made good their retreat to Kiangsi by a road westwards of that by which they were attacked.

Missionaries Still Held.

The army from Swatow is still busy clearing the districts which had been overrun, and part of the force which had been concentrated at Taipo and Samho has been sent back to the Kityang and Fungshan districts to cut off the retreat in that direction.

The missionaries of the Basel Mission, captured by local Communists near Kaying, are still in captivity. It is reported, however, that they are being well treated by their captors, and are being used as teachers in English to the Communists. It is to be hoped that negotiations will be possible on the part of the authorities with a view to their release after this long time.

EMPLOYMENT OF A MUI TSAL.ELDERLY CHINESE WOMAN IS FINED $25.*ADOPTION PLEADED.

That she had taken into her employment a mui tsai, twelve years of age, was the charge brought against an elderly Chinese woman of Bulkeley Street, who appeared before Mr. T. S. Whyte Smith at the Kowloon Magistracy this morning.

The defendant pleaded that the girl was given to her as an adopted daughter.

Mr. H. R. Butters, who prosecuted, said the girl was sold by her aunt to a woman in Hongkong and later re-sold to the defendant for $100. Following a complaint of ill-treatment, Sergeant Post was sent to the defendant's house and was there handed a document which related to the original sale.

Mr. Butters mentioned that the allegations of ill-treatment could not be substantiated.

After hearing the evidence, his Worship registered a conviction and imposed a fine of $25.

His Worship intimated that he would give a certain amount of credence to the fact that the girl in her evidence stated that she had always been well treated by her mistress and desired to return to her.

Brace brought about the dismissal of Wynch in his next over. The batsman just touched at a dangerous ball and was caught behind the wicket. He had batted without enterprise but soundly for just an hour and had made eighteen, one boundary.

The partnership was the best of the day so far, putting on thirty runs in the same number of wickets. 51-1-18.

Hopkins, joined by Braddell, snatched a long hop from Reid to the leg boundary, a nice wicket shot. He had made 22 at this stage in half an hour.

Braddell was in for five minutes and had made a single off Reid when he suffered the fate of an unusually large number of batsmen during the present series, playing on. He failed to get hold of a ball from Reid playing outside it. 57-5-1.

Gibson followed and with a couple of singles, subsequent to one by Hopkins, put 60 on the board after 75 minutes.

Out in Extraordinary Way.

Hopkins hit Reid hard for a four and then singled to make his personal contribution 30. He had been in for only 40 minutes giving an enterprising display.

Gibson was dismissed in an extraordinary way in Reid's next over. He hit under a comparatively slow ball and was given out caught behind the wicket. The decision caused some discussion in the pavilion, as it did not appear that he had collected the ball in the slightest. He must have done, however, as both Pearce and Reid appealed very confidently. Enquiries of Gibson elicited that he hit the ball hard. The strong light must be deceptive.—58-6-3.

Hopkins began to hit out and he got two fours and a single off Reid giving him 40 out of 51 in 50 minutes.

Some Fast Scoring.

Eighty appeared after 85 minutes, and Wyatt went on for Reid. The change was almost immediately successful but resulted in a boundary hit instead. Reid made a magnificent effort to take a catch from Evan Wong but the ball was out of his reach.

The score reached 90 after an hour and a half, the new partnership having already added 22 in ten minutes!

Hopkins' Fine Effort Ends.

Bowler went on again with the total at 93 and Hopkins' splendid innings came to an end. He made a wild stroke, sending an easy catch to Maxwell at mid-on. He went in third wicket down and had scored 47 runs, including seven fours. The total was 93, Hopkins having made more than half, while his runs were actually made out of 72 in an hour.

Without any additional score, Bowler met with further success, taking James' wicket with a capital ball.—93-8-0.

Smith, the newcomer, square cut Bowler to the boundary and made a single off the last ball of the over which thus produced two wickets and five runs.

Hundred Up.

Smith overdrove Wyatt to the public stands, putting 100 on the board after a 100 minutes.

Smith got his ten and Wong followed his example. A nice pull for four by Smith brought the cost of Wyatt's over to ten runs.

KOWLOON DAIRY PROSECUTION.BUILDINGS FOR WHICH THERE WAS NO PERMIT.*ARCHITECT'S ERROR.

Mr. G. E. Ahwee was summoned before Mr. T. S. Whyte Smith, at the Kowloon Magistracy this morning, for erecting workmen's quarters and a latrine on the new Kowloon Dairy site at Customs Pass without a permit.

Mr. J. T. Prior appeared for the defendant and entered a plea of not guilty.

Mr. J. H. Bottomley, engineer of the Public Works Department, explained that Mr. M. A. Xavier, architect to Mr. Ahwee, submitted a plan which was disapproved. The buildings, however, were erected, although the prosecution could not say definitely when they were built.

The plans were since approved and the buildings erected to the satisfaction of the Public Works Department. All that was being asked for was a conviction.

It was revealed in the evidence of Mr. M. A. Xavier who was called by the defence, that after the plans were disapproved, witness informed his assistant to notify the defendant but did not personally speak to Mr. Ahwee.

In reply to a question from his Worship, Mr. Xavier said he had waited for Mr. Ahwee to see him about the plans and, not having had a visit from him, had forgotten all about the matter.

His Worship remarked that it was a mistake on the part of the architect and registered a caution.

Brace came on in his stead with the score at 108. Evan Wong swung him to leg, a single, Smith nearly played on, and got a single. 110 up.

Smith's fourth boundary, a fine stroke to leg, brought his score to 20 after 18 minutes and put 120 on the board. Wong sidled Bowler between the slips for a boundary.

Last-Wicket Stand.

With the score 124, Owen Hughes went on at the Supreme Court end, and had four men on the boundaries. His first ball was woefully short and Wong punched him hard for two, scoring his twenty after batting 40 minutes.

Wong drove hard at Reid, who replaced Bowler, and 130 appeared in the last over before tiffin.

At the close of play this morning, 133 had been scored for 8 wickets, the last partnership having put on forty runs.

ARMISTICE DAY IN SHAMEEN.SPLENDID SUM RAISED BY SALE OF POPPIES.*PICTURE BRINGS $310.

Shameen, Nov. 12.

A Bank and General Holiday was observed in Shameen yesterday in celebration of the eleventh anniversary of the Armistice. Gunboats in port dressed up in honour of the occasion, which is also a French National Holiday.

In the morning the ex-Artillery men were "at home" to all other ex-service men at the Victoria Hotel from 9.45 a.m. to 10.30 a.m. Later, a special service was conducted by the Rev. John Fraser at Christ Church, Shameen, at which the ex-service men were present.

A collection taken in aid of the Poppy Fund realised $150. On the French Concession a special mass was held at the French Church, Shameen, after which a review of naval and military detachments from the French Gunboats Argus and Vigilante and the Canton Detachment of L'Infanterie Coloniale was held in the French Municipal Gardens.

A reception was held at the Canton Club at 12.30 p.m. and a number of poppies were auctioned. A gold sovereign was also put up for auction and was knocked down to Mr. P. T. Carey for $105, whilst an original cartoon picture was knocked down to Mr. J. M. Walker for $310. During the morning, poppies were on sale as well as a small booklet entitled "A Shameen Saga."

The results of the Poppy Fund were extremely good considering the very small white population of Shameen, the total so far being HK$2,186.65, £177/- and C$14.50. Amongst the principal contributions were Mr. J. M. Walker, $357; Mr. Wm. Galloway, $250; Mr. T. M. Annot, $155; Monsieur Lucatue, $120; Mr. R. K. Batchelor, $125; Captain Boddam Wetham, R.N., $110; Mr. G. M. D. D. Wolf, $110; Mr. P. T. Carey, $108; Commander R. M. Hunt, R.N. Ret., $107/-; Mr. M. A. Annot, $77/-; Monsieur J. LATEST BLOW TO KUOMINCHUN.(Continued from Page 1.)

The attacks on Tengfeng will be directed from Milsien and Linyue, but it is anticipated that Marshal Chiang will not start the offensive on Tengfeng until he has completed the mobilization of the 100,000 men.

On Saturday morning, before dawn, the Kuominchun army inside Tengfeng made an attempt to break through, but the Nanking troops under General Kuo Chu-tung (commanding the Second Division) engaged the Kuominchun in the suburbs, inflicting a severe defeat. Nanking official reports say that 1,000 Kuominchun troops were taken prisoner by General Kuo Chu-tung.

It is stated that the Kuominchun forces inside Tengfeng are very hopeful of being able to hold out against the Nanking offensive. Extensive barricades in the form of sand bags have been erected and trenches have been dug around Tengfeng.

The general opinion is that it will be a difficult task for the Nanking forces to take Tengfeng.

NARROW MARGIN IN LAW.PUBLICATION OF WINNING SWEEP TICKETS.*LOTTERY CASE POINT.

When two Chinese were charged before Mr. T. M. Hazellrigg at the Central Magistracy this morning, with printing go pai lottery tickets, the magistrate admitted the difficulty of differentiating between that and the publication of winning sweepstake tickets in newspapers, and the police said that the margin was a very narrow one.

The prosecution added that the lottery was a genuine one, and was conducted under the auspices of the Macao lottery. They were quite satisfied as to its bona fides.

The two prisoners charged were So King Sing, who pleaded guilty to using the second floor of 198, Third Street as a common gaming house, and to printing announcements relating to a go pai lottery. Tsai Lun, the second defendant, denied the first charge.

A Chinese detective said that in company with several armed constables he raided the second floor of 198 Third Street at 7.30 a.m. on November 10. In the fourth cubicle he found the first defendant printing certain papers (produced), by means of a hand printing press. The man was working on a trestle.

He was alone, and when witness asked him if he was the tenant, he replied, "Several of us jointly rent this cubicle." In consequence of a subsequent statement made by the first defendant, the second accused was arrested.

The principal tenant of the house, a Chinese woman, said she did not know the first defendant, and the second defendant was the tenant of the cubicle.

Such figures in Newspapers.

Tsai Lun said he knew that the first defendant was working in the cubicle, but he did not know what he was working on. When arrested he was sleeping in the cock loft of the second floor.

The magistrate said he found it difficult to see what constituted "keeping the house" by the second defendant. He had not the slightest doubt that the man knew about the printing of the papers.

In answer to a question by His Worship, the prosecution said the printed papers were the result of a lottery draw. They gave the winning characters or numbers.

The Magistrate:—What lottery is concerned?

The Police:—It is being held in Hongkong, under the auspices of the Macao lottery.

The Magistrate:—Is it a bona fide one?

The Police:—Yes, it is quite genuine.

The Magistrate:—I have seen such figures printed in newspaper. How can you differentiate between the two?

The Police:—It is a very narrow margin.

His Worship said he was not going to take too serious a view of the case. Both defendants would be convicted on the charges and would be fined $10 each or seven days in default.

DEALER FIGHTS OFF ROBBERS.MAKES INTRUDERS CHANGE THEIR MINDS.

Refusing to be intimidated by the threats of four men who entered his house flourishing a pistol, Mr. Lui Sau, a cattle dealer living at Mataukok Road, not only saved himself from being robbed, but frightened the intruders to such an extent that they fled, with him in full chase. By good luck one of the men was captured and Inspector Phillips who was passing at the time, promptly arrested him.

The full story of the attempted robbery is a rather intriguing one. It appears that about 9.30 a.m. yesterday, Lui Sau was sitting in the ground floor of his house with three other Chinese. A knock was heard on the door, and a voice enquired for Mr. Lui. The door was opened and four men entered. When asked what was their business they simply shouted "search." They then proceeded to try and search Mr. Lui, but he resisted. He was struck on the chest, whilst one of the men produced a pistol.

In spite of this Mr. Lui assumed the aggressive in such a way, that the robbers took to their heels, with the outraged cattle dealer and a foki named Li Yip, in close attendance.

After a long chase they succeeded in catching one of the men, and as Inspector Phillips was passing at the time, he arrested him.

The robbers were entirely unsuccessful in their project, thanks to the cool manner in which Mr. Lui treated their threats.

A still bout took place in the Feather-Weight final, but Adams managed to win from Williams after some good boxing.

The final of the Light-Weights came to an abrupt end, Roberts being disqualified in his fight with Legge, for hitting with the heel of the glove. Baulch won the Middle-Weight final from Woolhouse on points, after spirited fighting on both sides.

The Light-Heavy-Weights went to Guivry, who knocked out Gray in the first round.

The final of the Heavy-Weights was fought between Cullen and Baker, the former winning on points after a hard-fought contest.

The last fight of the evening's entertainment was the final of the Welter-Weights. Summerfield beat Cockram on points.

The prizes were then presented by the Commanding Officer, Lt.-Col. C. H. Little, D.S.O., who congratulated the contestants on the good show put up by losers as well as winners.

A QUICK RETURN.

DANISHEE COMES BACK AFTER FIVE DAYS.

Having only been banished on Friday last, a Chinese, who was deported for a period of ten years, was charged before Mr. T. S. Whyte Smith at the Kowloon Magistracy this morning with returning from banishment.

The defendant pleaded guilty. His Worship remarked that the defendant had actually been banished on November 8 and had not taken very long to return.

The defendant, in reply to his Worship, said he had returned to the Colony as he had no friends in Canton. When he came to Hongkong from Singapore he was only a baby and knew nobody outside the Colony.

His Worship remarked that that had nothing to do with the offence. He had been told not to return to Hongkong for a period of ten years.

Sentence of eight months' hard labour and ten strokes of the birch was imposed.

NO PERMIT FOR DOG.

RAILWAY PASSENGER GETS INTO TROUBLE.

A Chinese, described as a coolie, living in Moon Street, appeared before Mr. T. S. Whyte Smith at the Kowloon Magistracy this morning on a charge of importing a dog into the Colony on the Kowloon train without a permit from the Colonial Veterinary Surgeon.

The defendant pleaded guilty. Mr. F. Winyard, of the Kowloon Canton Railway, informed his Worship that the defendant was seen with the dog at the Shum Chun Station and was warned that he was not allowed to take the dog on the train. At Shatin, the guard found the dog in the lavatory of the third-class coach and subsequently ascertained that the defendant was the owner.

A fine of $15 was imposed.

Sir Esme Howard.
Sir Esme Howard, the retiring Ambassador, was born in 1863, at Greystoke Castle, Cumberland, and was educated at Harrow. Entering the diplomatic service in 1885, he became assistant private secretary to Lord Carnarvon in Ireland. Next year he was posted to Rome and in 1888 to Berlin. Retiring from the service in 1892, he acted 1894 to 1895 as assistant private secretary to Lord Kimberley, then Foreign Minister. During the S. African war he fought as a trooper in the Imperial Yeomanry. Returning to diplomacy in 1903, he served at Rome. From 1906 to 1908 he was counsellor of embassy at Washington and then till 1911 consul-general in Hungary. Raised to the rank of Minister, he was sent to Switzerland and transferred in 1913 to Sweden where he was stationed till 1919. After acting as a member of the British delegation to the Paris Peace Conference and of the Inter-Allied Mission to Poland he went to Madrid as Ambassador in 1919. In 1924 he was given the important Washington Embassy in which he was very successful, adapting himself to the American conception of a diplomat as an approachable and communicative person. He made many speeches in which he did his best to promote closer relations between Britain and the U.S. In February of this year, a statement which he made when asked his opinion on press cables from London, foreshadowing an early resumption of the naval limitations discussions, led to a curious communique from the British Foreign Office which suggested that his view was at variance with British policy. Having realised the "disappointment" at Washington over Britain's inability to reply favourably and promptly to the U.S. proposal for fresh naval conversations, Sir Esme had expressed his personal opinion that the Cruiser Bill having been passed, the situation warranted the assumption that some efforts in that direction would be made before long, but were unlikely till the general election was over. The communique emphasised that the Govt. would not be in a position to do anything in the matter for some time and that there had been no change in the situation. Sir Esme Howard was knighted (K.C.M.G.) in 1916. He was given the G.C.M.G. in 1923 and the G.C.B. in 1928.

CROWN LAND SALE.NEW KOWLOON LOT IS

Two lots were offered at yesterday's sale of Crown Land at the Crown Lands Department of the P.W.D., there being an attendance estimated at about 80 persons.

Bidding for the first lot was brisk. Commencing at the upset price of $23,040, the bids swiftly brought the price up to $24,800, at which it was knocked down to Messrs. Ngai Wa Chan and Yeung Fai.

The lot comprises land in Tin Liu Street between Kwelin Street and Pei Oh Street, known as New Kowloon Inland Lot No. 1284. It contains about 23,040 square feet and was sold for a term of 75 years commencing from July 1, 1898, with option of renewal for a term of 24 years less three days. PRESIDENT HOOVER'S
SPEECH.FAVOURABLE RECEPTION
IN AMERICA.

New York, Nov. 12.

The American newspapers of all parties hail President Hoover's Armistice day speech as epoch-making and foreshadowing the success of the London naval conference.

The speech marks, says the Democratic New York Times, the highest level the President has yet touched as a devoted, intelligent, aggressive leader in the cause of universal brotherhood and peace.

The New York World declares that Mr. Hoover's suggestion to treat food ships as hospital ships, if adopted, will profoundly alter the whole modern problem of war.—Reuter's American Service.

British Press Views.

London, Nov. 12.

Much attention is devoted here to the notable Armistice Day speech by President Hoover.

The Daily Telegraph says, of the reference to food ships, "If the proposal is less simple than it sounds, that does not necessarily mean it is impracticable. It is not quite simple, for example, because there are commodities classifiable as important foods—fats are an outstanding instance—which are important also in the manufacture of munitions. Grain and other foodstuffs may be used for the making of industrial alcohol. Another possibility of objection arises if we consider the case of two combatants, one depending mainly on sea-borne food and the other depending mainly on over-land imports of food, the cutting off of which it is not proposed to make illegal. Such considerations arise at the very outset of the examination, which, as Mr. Hoover is justified in hoping, will be given to what he admits to be a wide departure from accepted ideas."

Gen. Smuts' Plans.

The Daily News is inclined to doubt whether all attempts to "humanise war" are anything but pitiful delusions. While Mr. Hoover's suggestion demands serious attention, the Daily News thinks the same should be given to the proposal recently reviewed by General Smuts that in exercise of international law, a clear distinction should be drawn between a "public" war waged as a police duty and a "private" war banned under the Kellogg Pact. That involves an interpretation of the freedom of the seas which seems a more useful line of approach to the problem.

The Times also calls attention to General Smuts' recent analysis of the effects on trading rights in wartime that would follow from a logical development of the pact of peace, and says if a private war is illegal, then the party resorting to it is an outlaw. If he were treated as an outlaw, then the whole question of neutral rights would be revolutionized and the doctrine of the freedom of the seas would cease to have any practical importance. The Times thinks that although the problem is important, it is hypothetical, and should not be allowed to distract attention from the business in hand, which is to make the naval conference a success. Such success would greatly simplify the solution of such problems.

The Manchester Guardian expresses the view that so far as Britain's own interests are concerned, she has two main subjects, firstly that she shall not be entangled in war, and secondly that if war comes, her population shall not be starved, as more than the population of almost any other great state, it is liable to be starved under modern conditions of warfare. It thinks President Hoover's proposal would be a notable contribution to the achievement of the second, no less than the first, of these aims.—British Wireless.

Mr. Kellogg's Part.

Washington, Nov. 12.

In the presence of representatives of the original signatories to the Kellogg Peace Pact, the French Ambassador, M. Claudel, conferred the Grand Cross of the Legion of Honour on Mr. Kellogg, in recognition of his efforts on behalf of world peace.—Reuter's American Service.

AND RAIN.

London, Nov. 12.

The most severe gale of the year swept Britain yesterday, and heavy rainstorms caused widespread floods, particularly in Wales and the Lake district.

Some roads were made impassable, telegraphic and telephone communication was interrupted, and many ships had to seek refuge in harbour.

The average velocity of the wind maintained over the British Isles for the whole day was approximately forty-two miles an hour.

In several parts, a wind of over sixty miles was recorded, and at Cardington a gust of eighty-three miles an hour was reported yesterday afternoon.

Fears were felt for the safety of the airship R101, which was tethered to her mooring mast, but the giant airship rode the gale satisfactorily, and sustained no damage.—British Wireless.

NOBEL PRIZE FOR LITERATURE.

AWARDED TO A FAMOUS
GERMAN AUTHOR.

THO. MANN HONOURED.

Stockholm, Nov. 12.
The Nobel Prize for Literature
has been awarded to Thomas Mann, the famous German novellist.

The honour is richly deserved,
Mann being not only a brilliant stylist but a remarkable psychologist. He was born at Lubeck in June, 1875, and comes of an old Lubeck patrician family. After his father's death he moved with his mother to Munich. Then he was for a time attached to a fire insurance company, but soon gave up a business career to study literature, history and art.

He spent a year in Italy and was then for several years on the staff of "Simplicissimus," the Munich comic paper. He later became a free lance writer, living sometimes in Rome and sometimes in Munich.
His first collection of tales, "Der Kleine Herr Friedemann," appeared in 1898. His great romance "Die Buddenbrooks" (1903) made him famous all over Germany, set the standard for the modern German novel and is still one of the most widely read books in the Fatherland. It is the story of the gradual collapse of the family of a Lubeck Senator and into it the writer wove much of the history
of his own family.

Two years later came "Tonio Kroger," a sort of diary in which is analysed with great insight the soul of an artist torn between the desire for the unusual and the bizarre and a fondness for an ordinary bourgeois existence.
"Königliche Hoheit" (Royal Highness) 1910 and "Der Tod in Venedig" (The Death in Venice) exhibit Thomas Mann at the height of his powers as a writer.
The experiences of the war and the period of collapse that followed led him to discuss the topics of the day in the "Views of an Unpolitical Man" (1917), a book which was misunderstood in many quarters. His recent novel "Der Zauberberg" (The Magic Mountain)
is a remarkable description of life
in a Sanatorium for Consumptives.
Despite the fact that its theme is illness and death it is not marred by pessimism.

Thanks to the lead he has given in his books Thomas Mann has become one of the representatives of the new Germany in the political arena. With the exception of the Socialists the average German has shown no great desire for political responsibility. Mann is an exception. His book "On the German Republic" published in 1923 reveals more democratic faith than that which he wrote during the war. In Jan. 1926 he ventured to give a series of addresses in Paris with the object of bringing about a rapprochement between the French and German intelli-gents. His visit was well received by the French students and the authorities held a reception in his honour.—Reuter and I.B.S.

Further Awards.
The Nobel Prize for Physics for 1928 has been awarded to Professor O. W. Richardson, the Director of Physics Research at King's College, London, for his discovery of the law governing the motion of electrons emanating from hot bodies.
The Physics Prize for 1929 has been awarded to the Duc de Broglie
of Paris for his discovery of undulating electrons.
The 1929 Nobel Prize for Chemistry is divided

of the Bio-Chemical Department,

COAL DEADLOCK
CONTINUES.

PRIME MINISTER NOW
INTERVENES.

OWNERS STILL REFUSE TO MEET MINERS.

SERIOUS SITUATION.

London, Nov. 12.
The coal industry negotiations assumed a new phase to-day when,
for the first time, the Premier took part in them.

This morning, he and the members of the Cabinet Coal Committee met the representatives of the coalowners, and this afternoon
they received the members of the Miners' Executive.

The chief difficulty confronting the Government is the contention of the owners that it would be impossible for the hours to be reduced from eight to seven and a half without a commensurate reduction in wages.

Another difficulty is created by the insistence of the miners on a national wages agreement. The owners state they will under no circumstances depart from the present practice of District Agreements.

The Premier and the Cabinet
Coal Committee are making a strenuous effort to overcome these difficulties. It is understood they discussed with the coalowners
to-day the question of setting up a National Board for the mining industry as an alternative to a national agreement.

Appeal Board.

The suggested National Board would be comparable with the National Wages Board already existing for the railways which is working very satisfactorily. It would be in the nature of a tribunal to which appeals could be made in the event of the owners proposing a reduction of wages in any district consequent on the reduction of hours.—British Wireless.

London, Nov. 12.
Mr. Ramsay MacDonald intervened to-day in the meetings of the Cabinet Sub-Committee with the coalowners and the miners on questions dividing them over working conditions.

The Sub-Committee met the parties separately, but Reuter's Lobby correspondent understands that no progress was made in either discussion.

The owners declined to agree to a joint conference with the miners, and they apparently adhere to their contention that reduced wages must accompany reduced hours.

The Government meeting with the Miners' Executive (which has submitted the Government proposals to the districts for decision, but is meanwhile endeavouring to obtain improvements therein), has been adjourned until to-morrow.

The Government takes a serious view of the situation, as it is anxious to introduce a Bill based on its proposals, which, in an amended form, have a reasonable prospect of meeting with acceptance by the industry.—Reuter.

THE DUKE OF YORK
ON PEACE.

PREMIER'S DAUGHTER TAKES
CHAIR AT MEETING.

TRAINING OF YOUTH.

London, Nov. 12.
H.R.H. the Duke of York,
the King's second son, today addressed a meeting of the World Alliance for promoting international friendship
through the churches. The meeting was held at No. 10, Downing Street.

Miss Isabel MacDonald, president, and the Archbishop of Canterbury, Lord Davidson (ex-Archbishop) and Lord Parmoor were present.

The Duke paid a tribute to the work of the Alliance. He said whether or not peace or war in future was to be the means of settling disputes must depend on the way in which the youth of the world is educated.

Contemplation of the horrors of the last war to the generation now growing up was rather the same as old people might look upon the Crimean War. It was not the horrors of the past, but a right
understanding of the problems which faced us which would achieve the result which was so ardently desired.—British Wireless.
